Lecture 3 Summary

During this lecture we were continuing analysing security modelling languages. Specifically we have focussed on
- the design of secure system functions (using Security Risk-oriented Misuse Cases) and

We looked to the examples how these languages could be used to manage security risks.

This week’s exercise/homework is available in the course Website. Its submission deadline - Tuesday (as always), 28.February.