Requirements Modelling

1. Creation of a class diagram:
   – What are the major components of the software system?
   – What are their attributes and methods/operations?
2. Creation of state diagrams for at least two selected objects (2 different classes).
3. Creation of the sequence (or activity) diagram to illustrate functionality of at least three objects.
4. Derive solution oriented requirements from your models. Update your requirements specification accordingly.